| This should only disable the notification but not remove the highlighting the text.  |                     |                        |            |
| 1) Add button to Menu that is of the form of a button plus drop down. The button itself disables all notifications, the drop down breaks down to Network, channel, and then custom's, putting in an All at each level. |                     |                        |            |
| 2) Chat's Context Menu item  |                     |                        |            |
